We add value to your business

Business hotels and fine residences for your corporate event

Creating your ideal work environment is our top priority. The Phi Hotels specializing in MICE events are located in strategic areas in an ideal position for hosting meetings, conferences and conventions, and incentive and team building events. Large, well-appointed spaces both indoors and outdoors, meeting rooms and halls with variable arrangements, and casual areas for informal meetings are suited to your every need. Various combinations of style, art, and nature can satisfy different tastes and preferences.

Personalized offerings for meetings, incentives, conferencing, and exhibitions

The variety of offerings at our hotels enables us to craft a bespoke event like a tailor-made suit, and at personalized rates: when you hire our halls, which are provided with office supplies and audio-video systems, or our anything but ordinary meeting spaces, with or without an overnight stay in our elegant, welcoming rooms, you'll have the chance to complete the experience with use of a spa, pool, or private beach.

A catering culture that offers a creative dining experience

For our coffee breaks, light lunches, or formal dinners, we've developed a cuisine with its own personal identity that blends the flavors of local traditions with the creativity and innovation of our chefs, crafting sophisticated, high-quality dishes that are sure to amaze participants at any kind of event. Our dining rooms are framed by large, panoramic windows, so you can enjoy a pleasant break along with a splendid view.

The success of an event is all in the details

The attention and dedication of a staff who take impeccable care of their guests' needs is the defining element of our meeting concierge service. The Phi Hotels staff ensure that all the planning phases and the event itself are managed to a high standard, satisfying your every request and seeing to everything required to make your event a success that participants are sure to remember.
